

GRADUATE PROFILE

Faith-inspired Learning for Life

As a church school in the Anabaptist-Mennonite tradition, Freeman Academy offers Christ-centered education for students in grades 1 through 12, with the goal of enabling each student to develop his or her gifts for the good of others, the church, the community, and the world.

We expect graduates of Freeman Academy to be persons who:

Academic

- Exhibit knowledge of the core academic disciplines and the fine arts as well as proficiency in the basic skills needed to succeed in college and the workplace.
- Communicate effectively through listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
- Utilize current technologies effectively and ethically.
- Value and demonstrate the skills of life-long learning – thinking critically, accessing information, solving problems, and collaborating with others.

Spiritual

- Explore the implications of Jesus' call and grow in relationship with Christ and the faith community, recognizing that faith is a life-long journey.
- Possess basic biblical literacy, the tools of biblical interpretation, and the know-how to draw on the Bible for spiritual discernment.
- Articulate and support personal convictions and beliefs.
- Cultivate a Christian worldview informed by Anabaptist-Mennonite theology and experience.

Lifestyle

- Identify and utilize God-given gifts in the vocation to which they are called.
- Respect people in all their diversity and maintain healthy relationships with others – showing understanding, practicing forgiveness, and resolving conflict peaceably.
- Practice Christ-centered values of peacemaking, justice, and service.
- Cultivate creativity and appreciation of the arts.
- Practice responsible stewardship of all God has entrusted to us: our bodies, time, material resources, and the created world.
